

MEDIA ALERT

BISHOP JAMES DIXON II AND OTHER PASTORAL LEADERS PARTNER WITH HARRIS COUNTY SHERIFF ED GONZALEZ TO HELP IMPOVERISHED FAMILIES OF INMATES

PRESS CONFERENCE

TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 2020 @ 10:30 AM
1024 PINEMONT HOUSTON, 77091

Houston, Texas...On Tuesday, April 28, 2020 Bishop James Dixon II and other pastoral leaders partner with Harris County Sheriff Ed Gonzalez to announce The Inmate Family Adoption Project. The project will secure food and supplies for hundreds of children whose parents are presently incarcerated. Amid COVID 19 and school closings, these children have limited resources. Mayor Sylvester Turner, U.S. Representative Sheila Jackson Lee, Commissioner Rodney Ellis, Senator John Whitmire, Senator Boris Miles, Representative Harold Dutton, and Representative Jarvis Johnson support this much-needed project.

WHO: Bishop James Dixon II and other pastoral leaders partner with Harris County Sheriff Ed Gonzalez.

WHAT: Press Conference to announce The Inmate Family Adoption Project. Bishop James Dixon II, Harris County Sheriff Ed Gonzalez are joined by twelve additional pastors who support the project will attend the Press Conference.

WHERE: The Community Of Faith Church, located at 1024 Pinemont Drive, Houston, Texas 77091.

WHEN: Tuesday, April 28, 2020 at 10:30am – Personal Interviews are available immediately following the Press Conference.

WHY: Most children of inmates live in impoverished communities. With a parent in jail, during this time of crisis, nutritious meals and other life essentials are not available to families in this predicament. The Inmate Family Adoption Project will provide relief and resources for children in these unfortunate circumstances.

For any inquires or prescheduled interviews, please contact Crystal Jackson at 713-907-9515 or crystalj@thecommunityoffaith.org.